Governors' Camp Big Cat Update Episode 3

The Governors' Camp area of the Masai Mara is one of the best places to see the spectacular wildlife of the African savanna in its natural environment. Governors' Camp Collection together with Screaming Reels Productions have joined forces to film and produce Governors' Big Cat Updates a series of documentary films where we bring you regular updates on the big cats of our area of the Masai Mara. The series is filmed by Warren Samuels an accomplished and highly respected wildlife filmmaker with over 11 years experience filming for the BBC, Big Cat Diary and Big Cat Live.

If you have missed any of the previous episodes or would like to watch them again they can also be viewed on You Tube at
